   c. Anna Sell presented the meeting minutes from the April 26, 2013, Executive Board Meeting. Audrey Faul made a motion to approve the Meeting minutes. David Hanson seconded. Discussion took place. Motion passed.

6. Reports and Discussion
a. NAESP Report—Dave Steckler

i. Our state received the “Circle of Excellence” for having 95% of our members belonging to NAESP and we also received “Goal Buster” status for maintaining our membership.

ii. Dave Steckler presented the idea of offering one fully paid membership in place of 5 $100 vouchers at the New Administrator’s Workshop. Dave Wegner made the motion to offer one fully paid membership at the New Administrator’s Workshop instead of the previous five $100 membership vouchers. Chris Bastian seconded the motion. Discussion took place. Motion carried.

iii. Discussion took place on possible changes of incentives for the national convention and covering expenses for more board members. Further discussion will take place at our meeting in October.

iv. Dave gave information and updates from the Zone 7 booth, reception, and breakfast. Discussion took place with input, comments, and suggestions focusing on the area of the breakfast. The board came to a consensus that we discontinue the breakfast and instead put our resources towards the reception.

v. 2014 National Convention will be July 10-12 in Nashville.

vi. Dave has ordered badges for the board and they should be here shortly.

vii. Dave welcomed any regional rep to call on him with any help that they need.

a. Editor’s Report—Dave Hanson

i. Dave presented a hard copy report to the board with due dates for this year for “The Voice”: 8/9 (Welcome Back), 12/13 (Candidate Bios), 3/7 (NDP), 5/2 (Service to Children).

ii. There are currently 6 companies that sponsor our publication and they will continue this year.

iii. Dave encouraged board members to submit articles and also asked them to encourage their peers at home to do the same.

b. NDCEL Report—Chris Bastian/Dave Wegner

i. The NDCEL meeting was August 1 with a meet and greet the evening of July 31.

ii. Mike Helman the new Higher Ed Vice-Chancellor was present at the meeting. The committee was given information on the Pathways document that was created to bridge the gap between K-12 and higher ed. The document is currently unfinished and in need of revisions with not much progress being made at this point. The document is headed back to committee and will not be in place this school year.

iii. The Common Core Science Standards Committee just met and are working on alignment. Science will probably be much more difficult because of controversial topics.

iv. The state of ND is currently looking at possibly applying for a Race to the Top Grant for early childhood; however, it needs legislative approval.
v. Superintendent Baesler, at this point, is leaning towards focusing the first round of evals on the principal level.

vi. A word of caution was sent out that Governor Dalrymple will be tightening up and watching storm days closer this school year.

vii. Homeland security grants will be available this year for security equipment and information will be sent out from Val Fischer.

vii. We will be moving to Smarter Balance testing in the spring of 2015. The window has now been extended to 12 weeks and the expected testing time will be from 7-8 hours for the battery depending on grade level.

c. Federal Relations-Lynn Wolf (written report)
   i. Lynn was absent from the meeting but made a written report available to the board members.

d. Region Representative Reports-Region Representatives
   i. Shari B said she is trying to learn how to provide what is needed to the diverse schools in her region....large schools vs. small schools
   ii. Jean feels she is still learning and trying as she had really no model to follow. She tries to reach all of her peers and would like a list of ALL principals, not just members. Audrey will send out a self-crafted list to the reps.
   iii. Jeremy said his first year he has tried to meet and get to know the principals in his region and this year his goal is to expand his communication with them. He feels his region has extreme unique needs.
   iv. Vikki felt that distance was the biggest hindrance to holding regular meetings, so her region is planning on utilizing technology more for meetings. Also, time set aside at conferences is appreciated and utilized and in fact, most productive.
   v. Discussion took place on taking a closer look at region alignment as a possible hindrance to facilitating meetings and activities in each region. Audrey and Shari will lead a committee with the region reps and will report back to the board at the October Executive Board Meeting.

e. Executive Committee Responsibilities/Tasks-Executive Committee
   i. Discussion moved to new business (8f)

7. Old Business

a. National Conference—Dave Steckler
   i. Information was given to the board members about the Zone 7 Meeting and Delegate Assembly at the National Convention related to the vote on the National By-Laws. Discussion took place. The hard-work put in by members protected our rights as individuals in a large organization

b. Review of Bylaws-Dave Hanson
   i. Dave presented the final by-law changes as presented to the membership by email. Section 9: “In the event that only one candidate is available to run for a position, a write-in candidate will be allowed.” and Section 8A the changes in the awards timeline. Deb Follman made the motion to accept the proposed changes. Audrey Faul seconded. Discussion took place. Motion carried.
