Thursday ESAND Session Speaker

Office 365

Kelly Rexine is the K-12 Information Technology Specialist with EduTech. He works with educators around the state to help integrate technology into their current curriculum. Before coming to EduTech, he taught 3rd grade. Kelly has a Bachelors in Elementary Education and a Masters in Teaching and Technology. He loves learning about new ways that students can become more engaged in the classroom and is always willing to share and learn with other educators to increase student achievement.

Opening Keynote Speaker

Ross Greene

Thursday Afternoon Keynote Speaker

"How to Impact Student Achievement and Behavior"

Annette Breaux

Teachers are role model, your actions speak louder than your words; be an excellent classroom manager; treat all students with dignity; be enthusiastic and relate all lessons to real life.

Friday ESAND Session Speaker

PowerSchool Round Table

Bob Baumann

In his 7th year as a member of the PowerSchool team, currently serving as PowerSchool manager for EduTech. Prior to joining the EduTech staff, was involved in public education, 17 years as a classroom instructor and final 15 years as a full-time technology coordinator.

Friday Morning Closing Keynote Speaker

"I'm Spread so Thin You Can See Through Me!",

Dave Weber

Everyone is being asked to do more, with less, faster, cheaper and better. Hands on exercises, case studies and humor are all wrapped around effective teaching principles.
